Peter W. Galbraith, former US Ambassador to Croatia, is Senior Diplomatic Fellow at the Center for Arms Control and a principal at the Windham Resources Group, a firm that negotiates on behalf of its clients in post-conflict societies, including Iraq.

In this lecture, Ambassador Galbraith will address the challenges that Iraq currently faces as a consequence of US invasion. He will pay particular attention to the impact US foreign policy has had on the formation of power-sharing strategies. Brendan O’Leary, Lauder Professor of Political Science will serve as discussant.

The Andrew W. Mellon Sawyer Seminar on Power-Sharing in Deeply Divided Places explores power-sharing and evaluates its role in as a standard prescription for protracted conflicts in deeply divided territories, especially when there are antagonistic self-determination claims.
