Dr. Gwen Sasse is a Professorial Fellow in Central and East European Politics at Nuffield College, Oxford University. Her research interests focus on Transition and Democratization; Ethnic and Regional Conflict; EU Eastward Enlargement; and minority rights. She previously taught at the London School of Economics and the Central European University, Budapest.

In this lecture, Dr. Sasse will discuss cross-community power sharing in the context of the European Union’s role in democracy promotion.

The Andrew W. Mellon Sawyer Seminar on Power-Sharing in Deeply Divided Places explores power-sharing and evaluates its role in as a standard prescription for protracted conflicts in deeply divided territories, especially when there are antagonistic self-determination claims.
