Raymond Seitz: Wrong on crucial points

Mr. Seitz's views, as expressed in his letter to the Irish Times, are not without interest. He states that he believes the Irish government's policies are incorrect and that the IRA should be subjected to military force. He suggests that the IRA is a terrorist organization and that its activities should be stopped.

However, Mr. Seitz's views are not widely shared by others. Many people believe that the IRA is a legitimate defense organization for the Irish people and that their activities are justified.

It is clear that Mr. Seitz's views are not supported by a majority of the people. He should consider the views of others before making such statements.

The issue of the IRA and its activities continues to be a contentious one, and there are many different opinions on the matter. It is important to consider all sides of the issue before making judgments.
